

Reels

keeps the hose intact and always ready to use.

Reels with axial passage

The assortment has an extensive range of reels in various sizes and designs. The standard model hose reel can be mounted behind any of our spray trucks. The solid construction and the quality powder coating ensure a durable product. These reels are supplied with a swivel coupling as standard. Working pressures up to 200 bar are no problem at all.

Self-retracting spring reel

The self-retracting spring reel has a maximum working pressure of 100 bar and is very easy to operate. compact. Due to the inventive spring construction, this reel rolls very lightly. The foldable You can choose which direction you want to walk in. This guide ensures that the hose is nicely distributed on the drum. The reel comes with a swivel coupling. A strong belt and a flexible coupling hose are supplied as standard.

Electric retractable reels

Our electric reels are available in 230V, 400V or 24V DC. These reels can be moved or mounted behind a spray car. All reels from the electric program have an infinitely adjustable roll-up speed of 5 to 60 metres per minute. Speed control is standard for hose reels with mechanical speed control. The speed control ensures automatic control of the reel speed. Standard the reels are supplied with a transmitter (maximum 150 metres) so that they can be operated with a remote control. Besides this type of electric reels we can also deliver the flow reel, this is a reel that is switches based on flow of the hose.

